Once the enrollment code has been successfully received the status will change to “verified” and a confirmation message will be sent to your mobile device.

Once the status is listed as verified, you will begin receiving text alerts on ATM or Debit card transactions within the next 24 hours.

If you would like to establish a “do not disturb” window for card alert texts, select Preferences from within the Guardian website and then select Edit Preferences. Select the time zone that you reside and select the hours between which you do not want to receive text alerts. The timeframe selected should not exceed 12 hours. Setting a “do not disturb” time window is optional; if set, you will not receive text alerts during the specified time.

You have no preferences set.
