

DID YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW RECEIVE AN ECONOMIC IMPACT PAYMENT FOR A DECEASED RECIPIENT?

On May 6, 2020 the IRS released the following information regarding the Economic Impact Payments and deceased recipients.

Economic Impact Payments made to someone who died before receipt of the Payment should be returned to the IRS.

Return the entire Payment unless the Payment was made to joint filers and one spouse had not died before receipt of the Payment, in which case, you only need to return the portion of the Payment made on account of the decedent. This amount will be $1,200 unless adjusted gross income exceeded $150,000.

To return an Economic Impact Payment that was a paper check and you have NOT cashed or deposited the check:

1. Write 'Void' in the endorsement section on the back of the check.
2. Mail the voided Treasury check immediately to the appropriate IRS location listed below.
3. Don't staple, bend or paper clip the check.
4. Include a note stating the reason for returning the check.

To return an Economic Impact Payment that was a paper check and you have cashed or deposited it, or if the payment was a direct deposit:

1. Submit a personal check, money order, etc., immediately to the appropriate IRS location listed below.
2. Write on the check/money order made payable to "U.S. Treasury" and write "2020EIP" and the taxpayer identification number (social security number or individual taxpayer identification number) of the recipient of the check.
3. Include a brief explanation of the reason for returning the EIP.
